Outreach workers hit the streets in Boston

Boston Health Care for the Homeless serves individuals with substance use disorder

Updated: 8:05 PM EDT Apr 7, 2022

NEEDHAM, Mass. — Boston Health Care for the Homeless is a community health care provider focused exclusively on treating people experiencing homelessness. As part of the organization's harm reduction services, they offer a supportive place for observation and treatment – or 'S.P.O.T.' Monitored by medical personnel, it's a space where individuals can go for medical observation after injecting drugs.
